SOUTH BAY ORCHESTRA OFFERS 'POPS' PROGRAM

Residents of Torrance will be entertained by the South Bay Civic Symphony's presentation of a "pops" concert Sunday afternoon, 3 p.m. Site of the concert will be the bandshell in Torrance Park, Arlington and Sante Fe Aves.

John Ebbinghouse, president of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, will lead the spectators in the Pledge of Allegiance, and Mayor Albert Isen will deliver a few words of welcome.

Rosemary De Camp, motion picture and television star and wife of Judge John Shidler of the South Bay Municipal Court, will speak about playgrounds and the need for playground equipment. Helen Phillips-Cordell, president of the Music Commission, will offer her greetings.

The concert program will include "Pique Dame," "Ballet Egyptian," "Concerto Opus 16" by Grieg, and "On the Beautiful Blue Danube" by Strauss.

Lange to Conduct
 Arthur Lange will share the baton with Elyse Aehle, regular conductor of the South Bay Civic Symphony, and lead the orchestra in his own composition "Big Trees," "Belle of the Ball" and "Fiddle-Fiddle," by Leroy Anderson.

Dr. Lange is a prominent American composer and noted film studio director, having scored such pictures as "The Great Ziegfeld." His symphonic suites include "Fisherman and His Soul," "Water Whispers," "Antelope Valley," and "Symphonette Romantique."

Popular Elsewhere
 The promenade "pops" type concert is a regular feature of community life in other large cities as London, Boston and San Francisco.

Although there is no charge for the concert, those attending will have an opportunity to make contributions for the purchase of needed playground equipment. Members of the Jaycees will be in charge of the fund raising.

The South Bay Civic Symphony is one of the organizations offering major contributions to the cultural development of Torrance. With a membership of 63 local musicians, the orchestra is considered one of the finest of its type.

An Explorer Scout in Post 219X, Charles Johnson, of 1115 Kornblum, hopes he can attend the National Scout Jamboree next year in Pennsylvania. Meanwhile, he's preparing for his first year in high school at Torrance High.

A 14-year-old, Charles packs Route 50 for The HERALD and has been a carrier for the past four and a half years. He attended Madrona Elementary School, from which he was graduated last June.

Charles' hobbies include sports. He was a regular on the Red Devils, championship recreation department cage team last year, and won the 440 and football throw in the annual Optimist track meet this Spring.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold W. Johnson. His dad is a deputy collector of Internal Revenue with his office in San Pedro.

Mother and Three Children Fly Home From Ohio Vacation Trip

By JANET ROBINSON
 Fr. 5-7063

Ruth Manchester and her three children, Connie 8, Lana 5, and Bobby 1, flew home last Sunday after a six-week vacation in Cincinnati and Dayton, Ohio. In Cincinnati they visited Ruth's mother and sister, Mrs. Margie Wolnitzek and Jeanne, and in Dayton they visited Bob's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Manchester. The children had fun renewing acquaintance with their many cousins in the midwest and the weather was perfect during their six week sojourn. Upon their return they found Bob suffering from a bad case of the hives so Ruth has been kept busy doctoring him. He's just about over them now!

ing so as a result the whole family had lots of fun.

Rosemary and George Walker of Highgrove have been entertaining Rosemary's brother, George Rader of Lafayette, La., who will be visiting them for a month. Last week they drove up to Carmel for four days, toured the Monterey Peninsula, and visited Big Sur.

Marge Hocker of 4044 Pacific Coast Highway hosted a Get Acquainted Coffee Klatch for new neighbor, Isabelle Heavysage. Women gathering to meet Isabelle were Jeanine Ponce, Joan Nelson, Helen Dreisler, Dottie Hurst, Loradel DeArmitt, Virginia Raski, Gladys Whitti, and Phyllis Birch.

The guests at Albert and Meria Wilson's home are Meria's brother and his wife and daughters, Ens, and Mrs. Eugene Erner and Pamela and Michele. Ensign Erner finished his training at Officers Candidate School at Newport, A. I., and received his commission on Aug. 3rd. His first assignment is on the ship U. S. S. Brush and his home port is Long Beach. During their 10-day stay with the Wilsons they have been busy looking for a home in the surrounding areas.

Shirleen Boe, of 4515 Green Meadows Ave., flew up to visit her grandmother in Vallejo for two weeks. According to letters received she has been having lots of fun swimming while there.

Betty and Jerry Shaw and their two children, Dianne and Tracy, of Janet Lane have just returned from a two week vacation at Yosemite. They loaded their station wagon down with lots of firewood this time so they could have campfires every night which is such a big part of the fun in camping out. Betty says this is the first year that Tracy has been old enough to really enjoy camp-

Dick and Loradel DeArmitt spent their vacation at Deep Creek Lake, near Running Springs in the San Bernardino Mts. They stayed in a cabin there and spent their time swimming, fishing and they even rode on paddle boards. They had to cut their vacation short when the children started coming down with chicken pox—Ricky, 7, Michelle, 6, and Debra, 4, all caught the disease so they only had one week instead of two in the mountains.

We are all happy to know that just before their vacation little Debra DeArmitt underwent a successful operation on her right eye at the Daniel Freeman Memorial Hospital in Inglewood. Now her mother is taking her to Inglewood twice weekly for eye exercises to teach her to use all of her eye.

I know there are many interesting vacations to report and lots of other doings among the residents in the section west of Newton School. If you have done something interesting or know of a neighbor who has, how about picking up the phone and giving me a ring? The phone number again is Fr 5-7063.
